Welcome Statement – About Your Policy Wording

To maximize the benefits of your policy, we strongly advise reviewing your policy wording, Insurance Product Information Document (IPID) and certificate of insurance carefully. These documents provide essential details about the exclusions and conditions that apply to your policy. Failure to comply with these conditions may affect the outcome of any claims you make.

Please note, no policy provides cover for every situation. We do not cover certain things including, but not limited to:

- Losses that are not specifically listed under 'What is covered'.
- Circumstances you were aware of before purchasing this insurance or booking any trip which could reasonably be expected to result in a claim under this policy.

The exclusions to your policy are detailed in the "General exclusions applying to all sections" and the "What is not covered" sections. If a type of loss is not explicitly stated as covered, it should be considered excluded.

Important Information - Travel Regulations

Travel delays - EC Regulations

This policy is not designed to cover costs which are met under the EC Regulation No. 261/2004. Under this Regulation if you have a confirmed reservation on a flight, you may be entitled to compensation if you arrive at your destination 3 hours or more after your scheduled arrival time. The amount of compensation payable depends on the distance of your flight. If the delay is more than 5 hours long and you no longer wish to travel, the airline must offer to refund your ticket. The Regulations should apply to all flights, whether budget, chartered or scheduled, originating in the EU, or flying into the EU using an EU carrier. If your flight is delayed or cancelled due to a natural catastrophe, you must in the first instance approach your airline and clarify with them what costs they will pay under the Regulation. If you would like to know more about your rights under this Regulation, additional information can be found on the Irish Aviation Authority website (www.iaa.ie).

Baggage Complaints and the Montreal Convention

The Montreal Convention covers liability for baggage issues on international flights within the EU, including domestic flights. It applies to both checked and unchecked baggage. You should first contact your air carrier directly to resolve your baggage complaint. For additional guidance regarding complaints against air carriers registered in Ireland, you can reach out to the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission (CCPC) at www.ccpc.ie. If the airline is based in another EU country, Norway or Iceland, contact the European Consumer Centre Ireland (ECC) at www.eccireland.ie. Ensure you submit your complaint promptly, as the Montreal Convention imposes strict deadlines for filing claims. Key timeframes (in calendar days) under the Montreal Convention:

- Damaged Baggage: File a written complaint within 7 days of receiving your checked baggage.
- Delayed Baggage: Submit a written claim within 21 days from when the baggage is returned to you.
- Lost Baggage: Baggage is deemed lost after 21 days of delay. You then have 2 years to file a written claim for compensation.

It's important to note that failing to comply with these deadlines may result in losing your right to compensation from the airline. Always report baggage issues immediately at the airport and file a Property Irregularity Report (PIR) before leaving the airport.

Medical Warranty Summary

This Medical Warranty Summary doesn't include all the details and conditions of cover. The full terms are located in the Medical Warranty and Important Conditions Relating to Health section of this policy. To ensure full protection under this policy, you (and all insured persons) must follow the Medical Warranty and Important Conditions Relating to Health section. Failure to declare relevant pre-existing conditions may result in your claim being turned down and your cover under this policy being invalid. We recommend making this declaration within 14 days of purchasing this policy.

Based on the medical information you provide, we will assess whether coverage can be offered, if any exclusions or restrictions apply or if an additional premium is required. If an additional premium is necessary, coverage will not commence until we have received full payment and provided you with written confirmation.
